

GRAPHIC DESIGN INTERNSHIP

START

Open

Manhattan based political consulting firm is currently seeking Graphic Design interns who will work on campaigns for political candidates, not-for-profits, corporations, advocacy groups, and labor unions to help accomplish their strategic goals visually.

Our team is responsible for a large volume of work, so the intern will provide direct support to our lead designer. The right candidate needs a strong background in print and web, while excelling under pressure and tight deadlines.

PROFESSIONAL REQUIREMENTS

- Positive, mature, and professional attitude
- Punctuality and reliability
- Detail-orientation and excellent organizational skills
- Be a multi-tasker, able to manage simultaneous projects at varying stages of completion and meet deadlines
- Ability to work independently or as part of a team
- Experience in use of professional graphic design software (InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop, Dreamweaver, Muse, Video (editing is a plus) and access to these programs (intern will need to bring in their own computer with appropriate software to use in the office)
- Keen eye for detail, proofing and editing
- Strong verbal and written communication skills including proof-reading
- A sense of humor

AVAILABILITY

Full and part time placement is available; however, you must be able to work a minimum of 2-3 full days per week, for 12 weeks.

SUBMISSION

Please submit your resume, cover letter and link to an online portfolio (class work is acceptable) to ana@theadvancegroup.com. Include in the subject line: Graphic Design Internship